Workshop for reconnecting
with the power of life

14 - 17 juli 2016

The rapid warming of the planet is an urgent call towards opening our hearts and consciousness to the pluridimensional Earth, where life finds chances to continue with its blossoming. We will work with basic steps to reconnect with the power of life and with its creative potentials within ourselves as human beings, in connection with other beings of Gaia and the Earth as a conscious being. The landscape of Omberg and the Vättern Lake offer perfect places to explore and to reconnect with the power of life. Marko has together with his collaborators developed corresponding Gaia Touch exercises and imaginations based upon the Book of Life from the Apocalypse and its seven seals which will serve as foundation for the workshop.

Marko Pogacnik lives in Šempas, Slovenia. Starting with Land Art in the 60's his artwork is combined with holistic ecology called geomancy. He has developed lithopuncture, a method of Earth healing and the language of cosmogrammes. Books include: Turned Upside Down, Nature Spirits & Elemental Beings, Sacred Geography, Gaia's Quantum Leap and others.

In 2014 Marko was awarded UNESCO Artist for Peace by the Secretary General in Paris because of his global work for the health of the Earth. You can look here: www.markopogacnik.com
